

Royal Far West

POSITION VACANT

PAEDIATRIC SPEECH PATHOLOGIST

PERMANENT PART-TIME (MINIMUM 3 DAYS PER WEEK) OR FULL-TIME

Royal Far West is a charitable organisation that provides multi-disciplinary specialist health services to NSW country children with non-acute developmental and mental health difficulties. Royal Far West is seeking appropriately qualified Speech Pathologists who will be responsible for the provision of services within the allocated clinical caseload in collaboration with the multidisciplinary team.

Applications must address the following selection criteria:

Essential:

- Eligibility for membership of Speech Pathology Association of Australia;
- Recognised qualifications in Speech Pathology;
- Relevant experience working with a paediatric caseload;
- Highly developed verbal, written and interpersonal communication skills, with both professionals and parents;
- Computer literacy;
- Commitment to Quality Improvement;
- Ability to respectfully and strategically build working partnerships with referring professionals, particularly those who will continue to work with the child and family following the RFW assessments and services;
- Willingness to conduct some outreach services to rural and remote NSW.

Desirable:

- Experience working as part of a multidisciplinary team;
- Experience working with children with developmental speech and language disorders;
- Current unrestricted NSW Class C Drivers licence.

Successful applicants will be required to undergo relevant pre-employment screening.
